

One corner of the detectable warning must be within 8 inches of the grade break (face of curb). No other point on the leading edge may be more than 5 feet from the grade break